Fight hate
with education

Since 2014 our mission is to teach non-Jewish audiences -specially students- through our history about the importance of diversity and the dangers of prejudice & hate in our society.

Why support the Jewish Museum:

Antisemitism in Chile

Believe that Jews have a too much power in the business world.

Strong presence of the BDS (Boycott, Divestment, Sanction) movement against Israel on Chilean campuses.

Strong Anti-Israel narrative in local media and the government. Increasing online and offline antisemitic incidents.

The Opportunity

- Discover Jewish heritage, the vibrant integration into Chilean culture, and the empowering journey towards shaping a brighter future for all.
- Combat antisemitism, hate, prejudice and bigotry, through local educational resources about diversity and inclusion.
- Address local antisemitism.
- Train Chilean police force on Human Rights and genocide prevention.

Friends of the Chilean Jewish Museum and Holocaust Memorial (FCJMHM)

Created in 2017 as a 501 c(3) corporation to provide support for the operations and projects of the Chilean Jewish Museum Foundation (2014).

Based on the funds we have been able to raise, the FCJMHM supported the expansion & redesign of the permanent Holocaust/Shoah exhibition as a response of the growing need for teaching about the dangers of hate speech and antisemitism.

These funds also support:

- Educational programs in both Jewish history and the Holocaust/Shoah.

- Build partnerships with similar institutions locally & abroad.

- Development of new educational platforms and resources, such as books, interactive resources, and media materials to combat the rise of
